

All Ireland Institute of Hospice and Palliative Care (AIHPC)

Connecting Policy, Practice and Research to Improve Palliative Care in Northern Ireland'

Online Workshop, 10 May 10am – 12pm

Programme

- 10:00 Introductions and Welcome
Prof Joanne Reid, Queen's University Belfast (QUB), Chair of Palliative Care Research Network (PCRN) and Karen Charnley, Director, AIHPC
- 10:10 Palliative Care in Partnership priorities
Paul Turley, Palliative Care Commissioning Lead, Health and Social Care Board
- 10:25 HSC R&D Division – Update on research funding priorities and opportunities
Dr Janice Bailie, Assistant Director and Dr Gail Johnston, Programme Manager, HSC R&D Division
- 10:40 Overview of Ulster University's palliative and end of life care research portfolio
Prof Sonja McIlpatrick, Head of School of Nursing and Professor of Nursing and Palliative Care, Ulster University
- 10:55 Overview of Queen's University Belfast's palliative and end of life care research portfolio
Prof Kevin Brazil, School of Nursing and Midwifery, QUB
- 11:10 Comfort Break
- 11:20 Discussion session including all speakers and attendees
How can we maximise synergies between research and policy in order to improve palliative care?
- 12:00 Close

Proudly supported by:

