

Setting the Scene:

Analysis of Responses to Roundtable Pre-Questions

Paul O'Mahoney
Research Manager
Irish Hospice Foundation

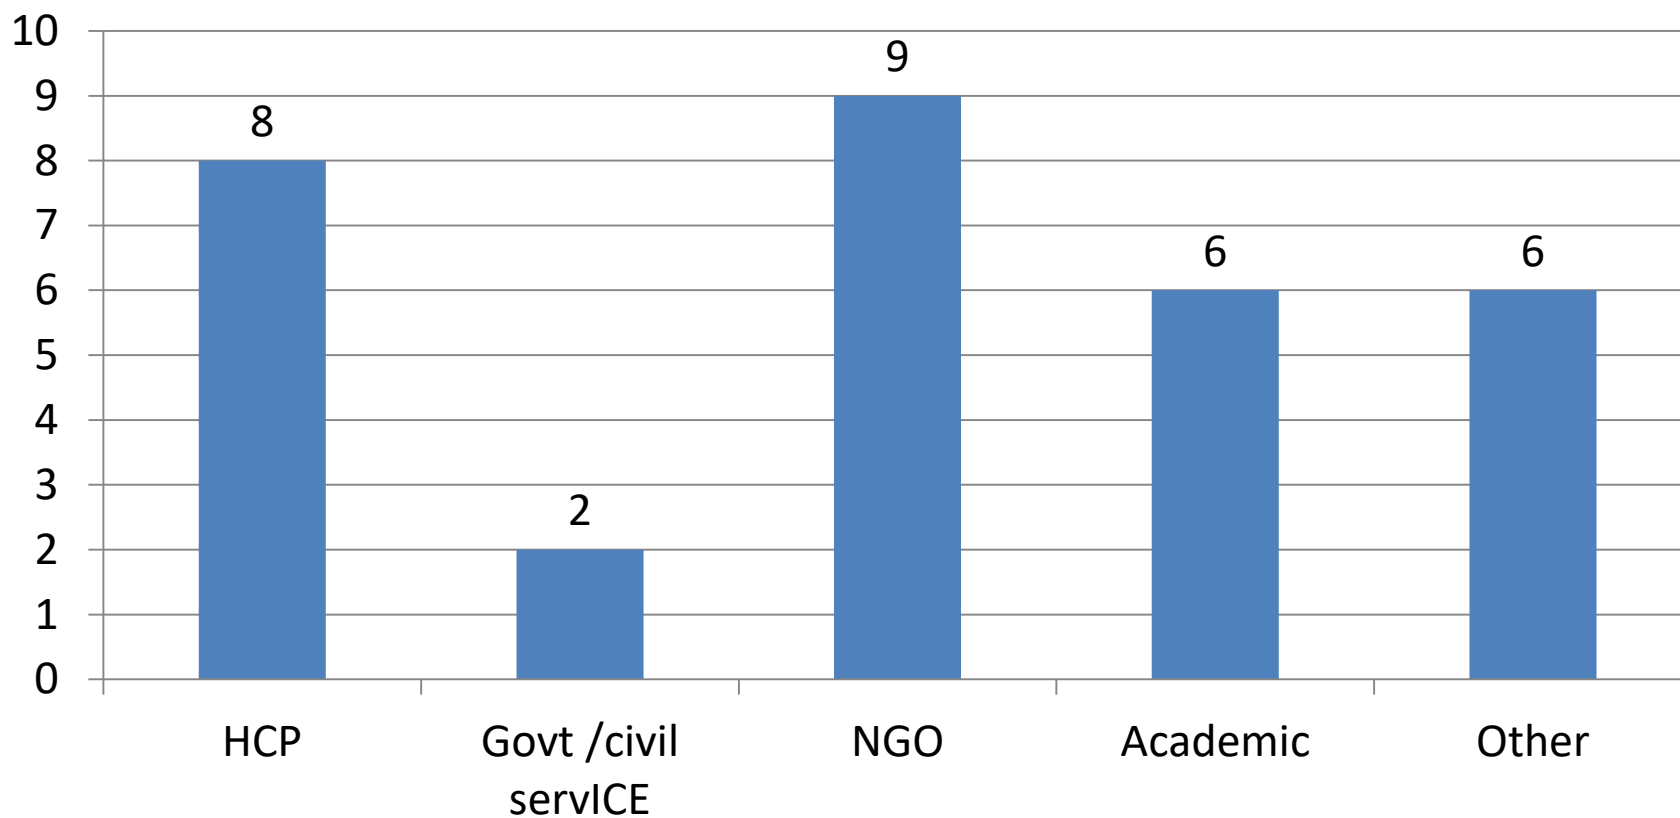

- 1. How confident are you of the sustainability of community/public-based initiatives to support people around palliative and end-of-life care?
- 2. Are you involved in any community/public-based initiatives to support people around palliative and end-of-life care?

3. Who do you think should take the lead in establishing a public health approach to palliative and end of life care? (RANKING)

4. Please indicate your opinion on the following statement: ‘Palliative and end-of-life care is a public health issue’ (SA/A/U/D/SD)

5. Please detail your role

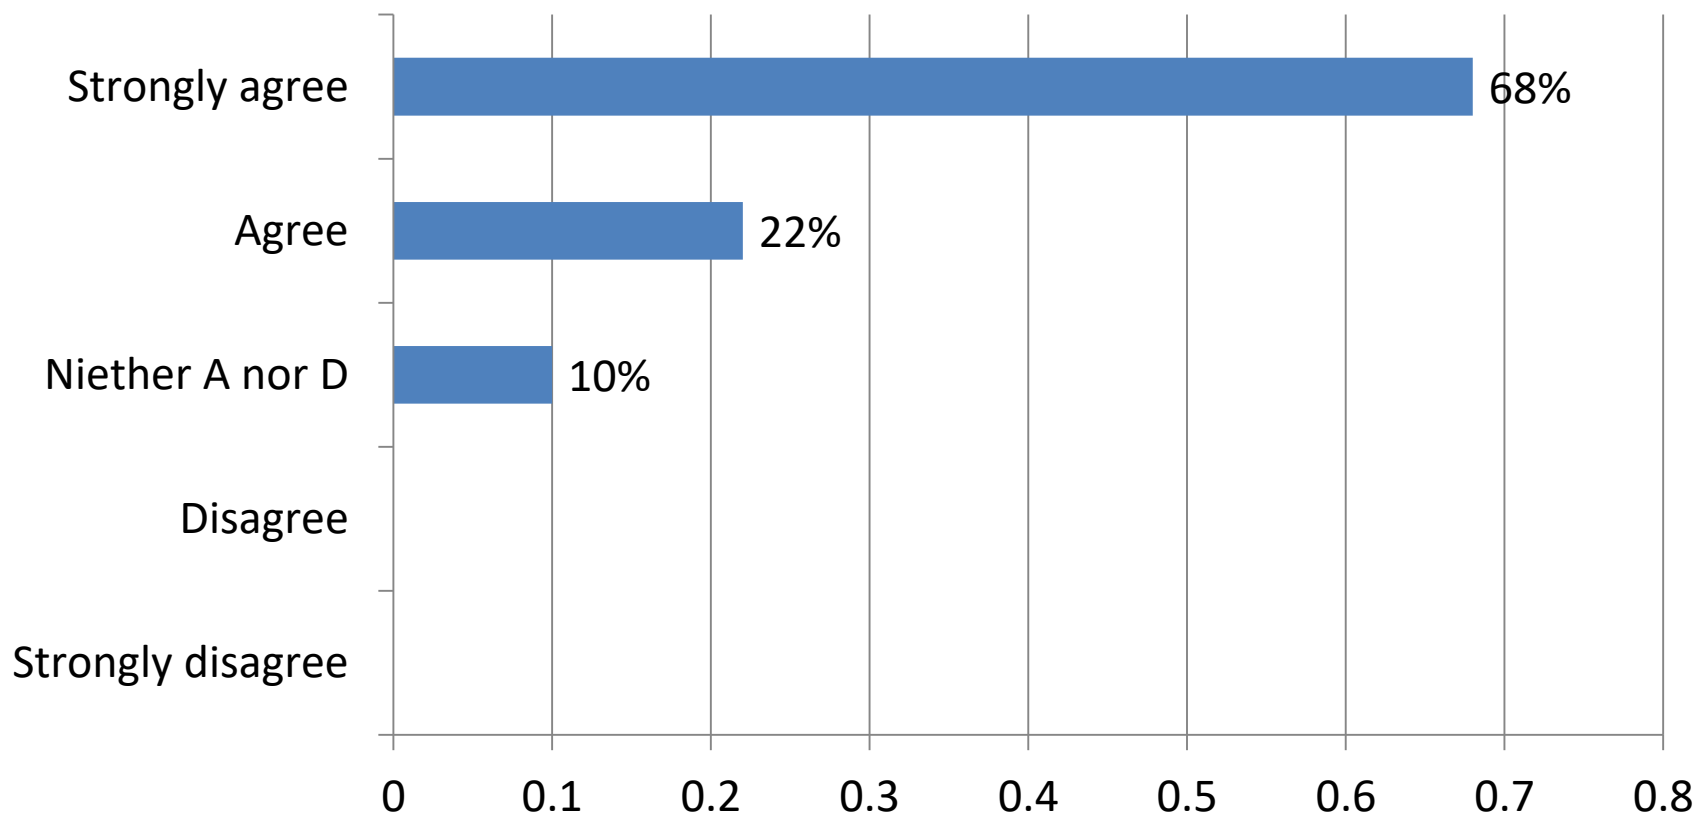

Please detail your role

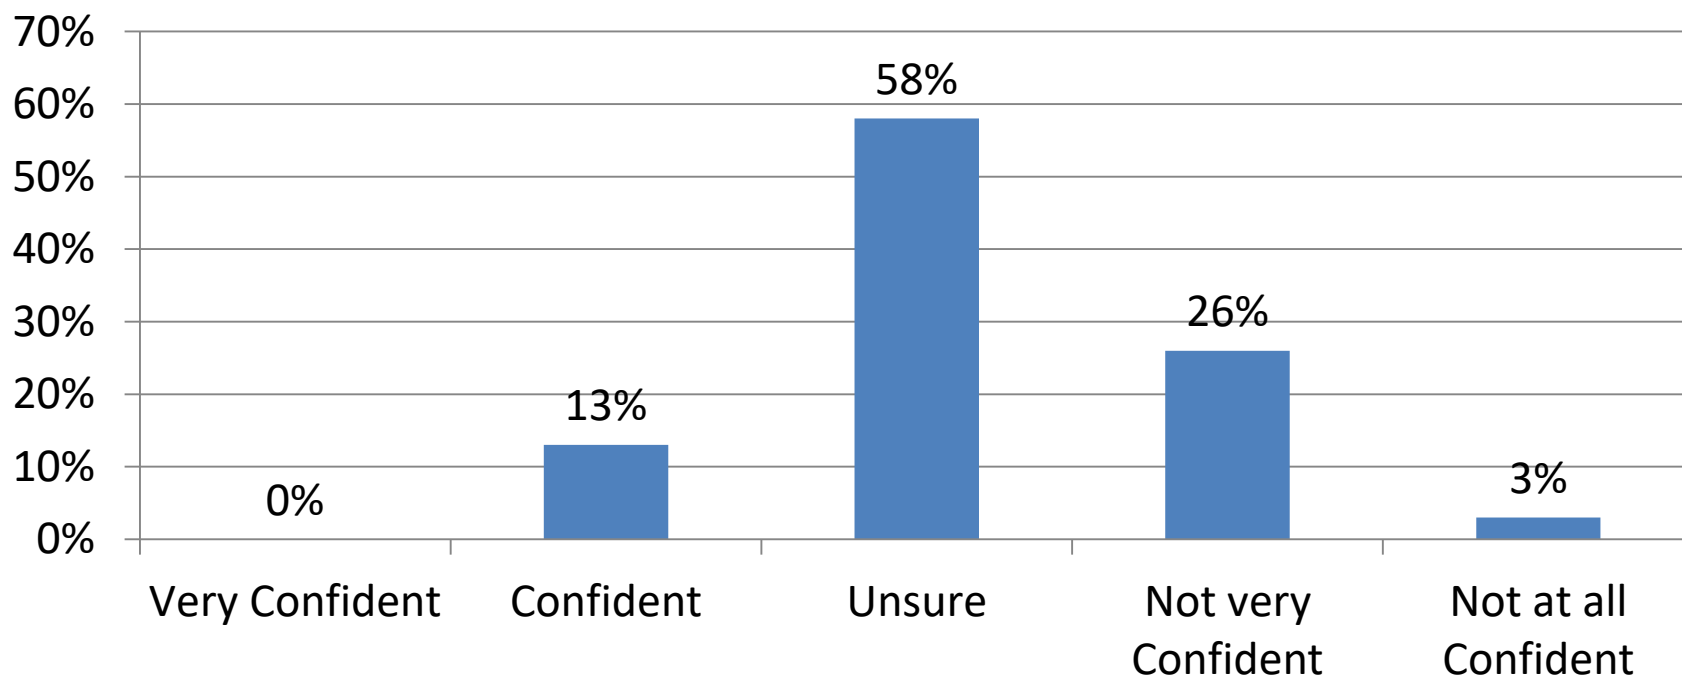

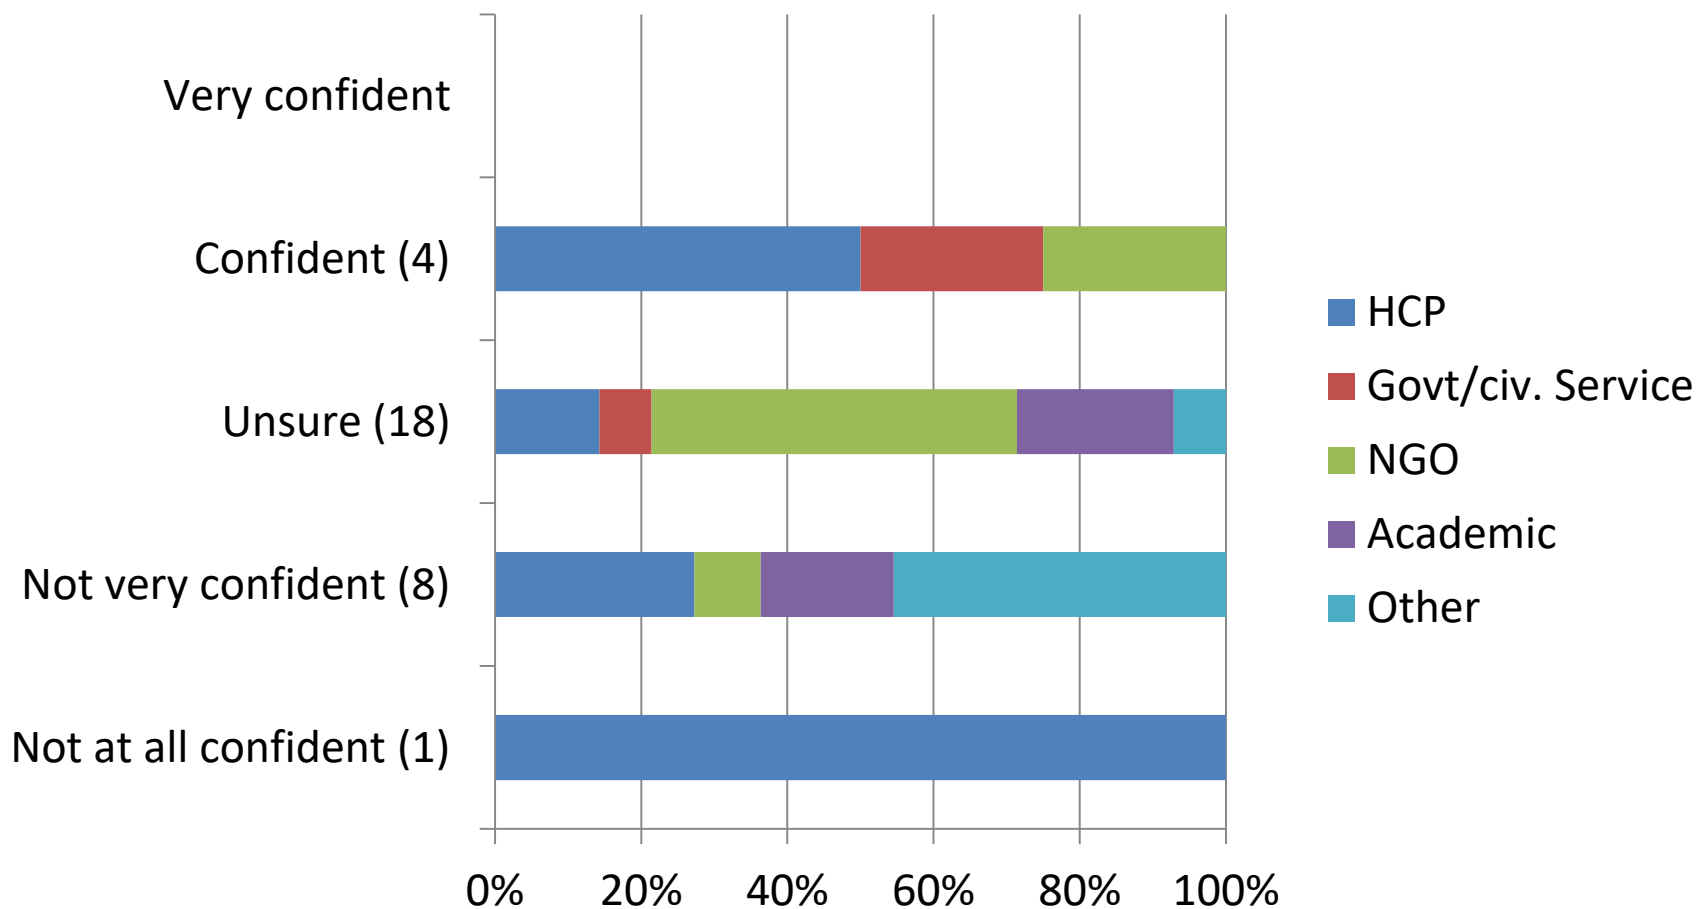

- Are you involved in any community/public-based initiatives to support people around palliative and end-of-life care?

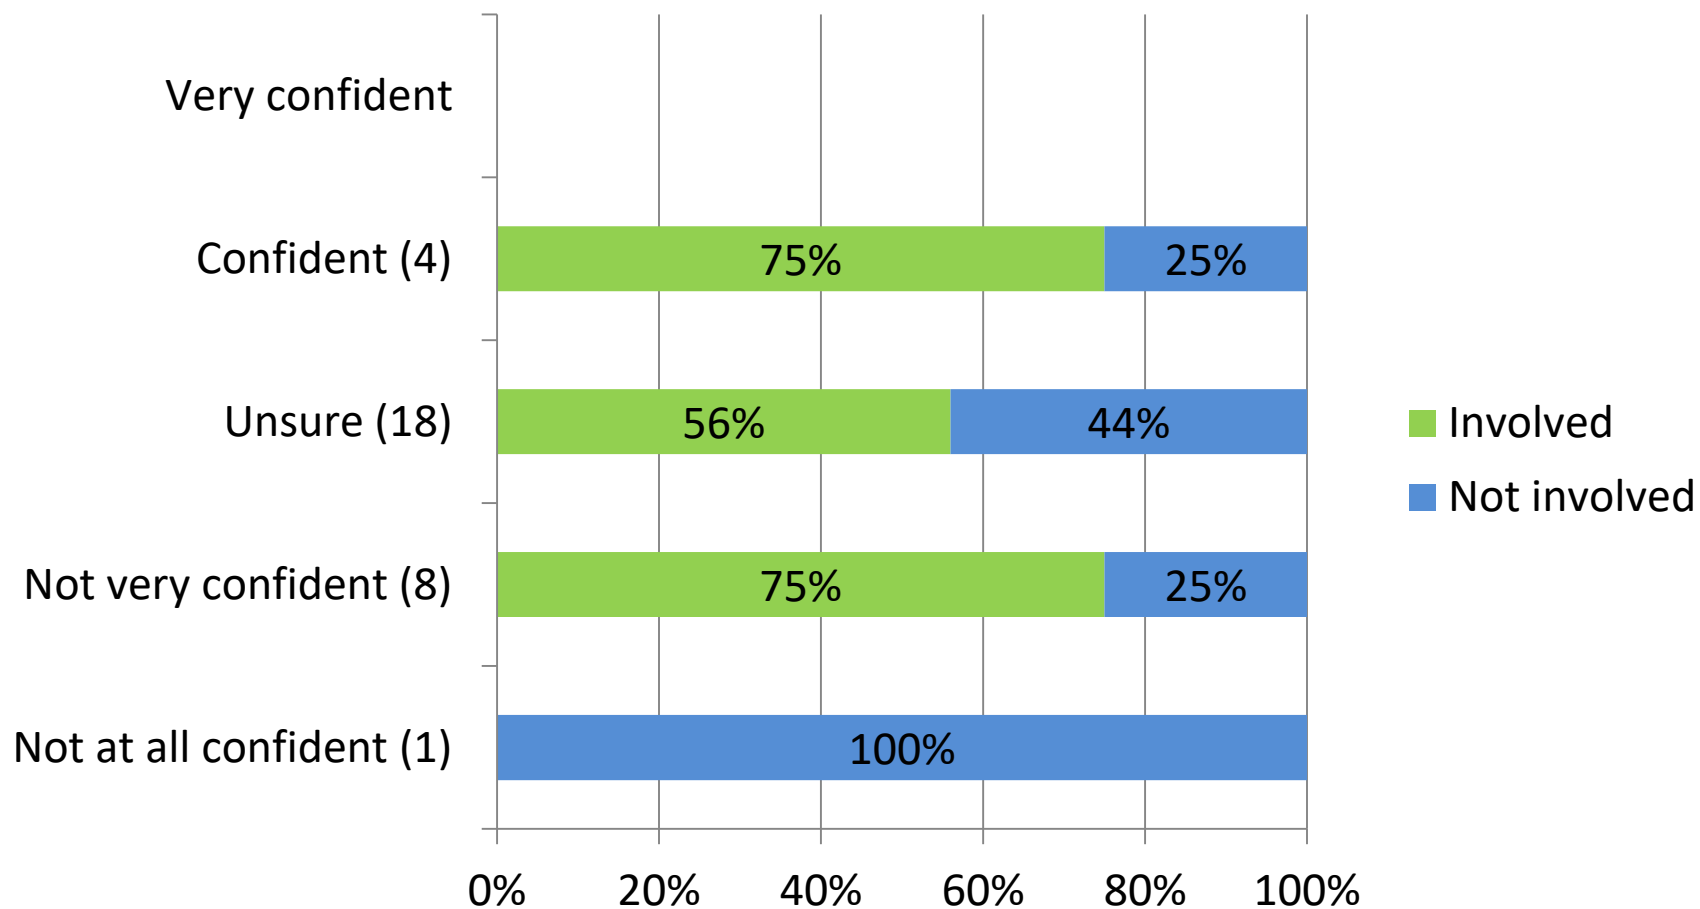

"Palliative & EOLC is a public health issue"

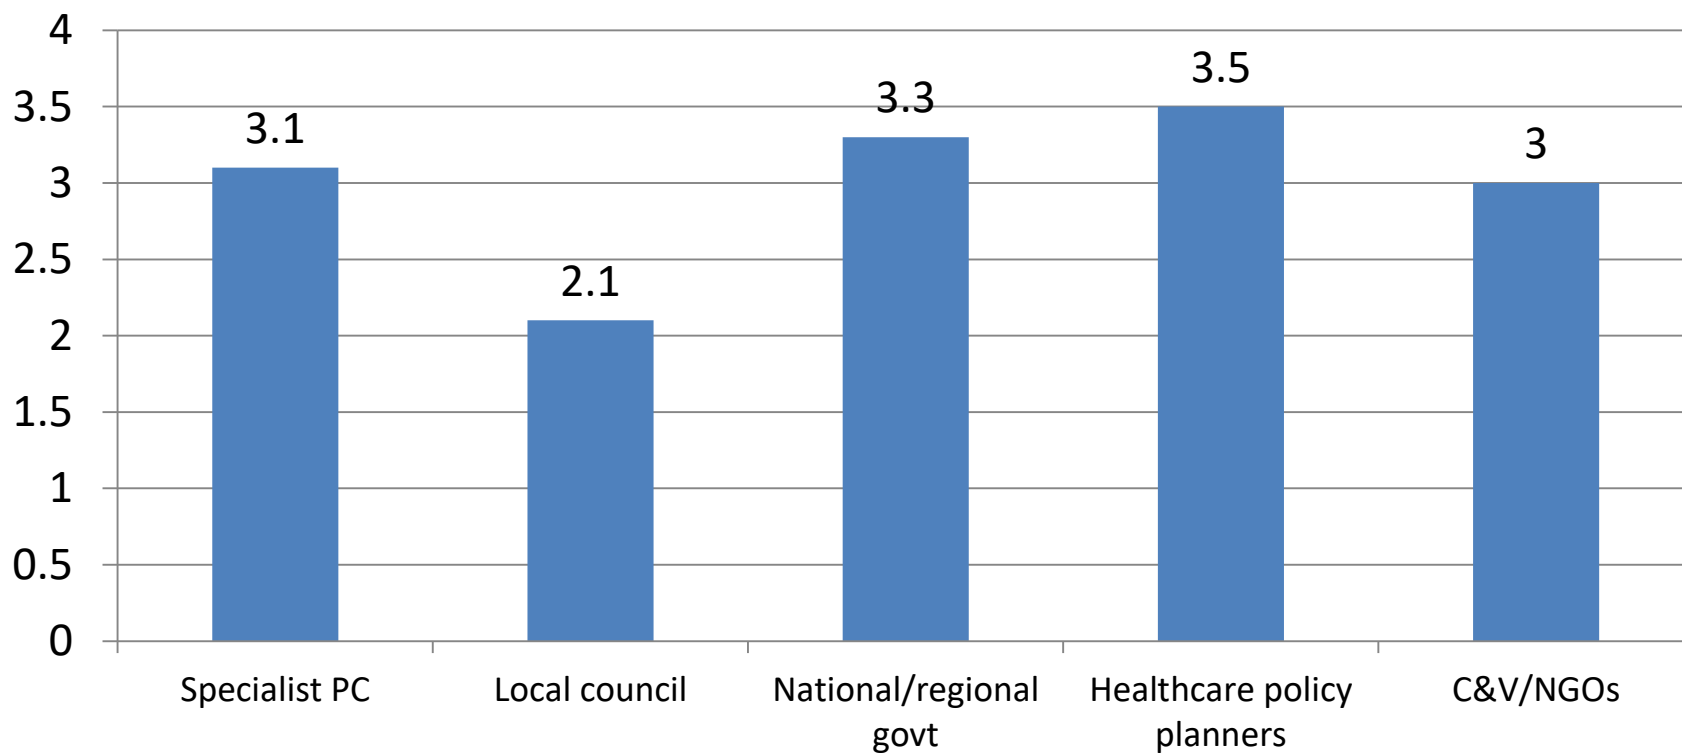

How confident are you of the sustainability of community/public-based initiatives to support people around palliative and end-of-life care?

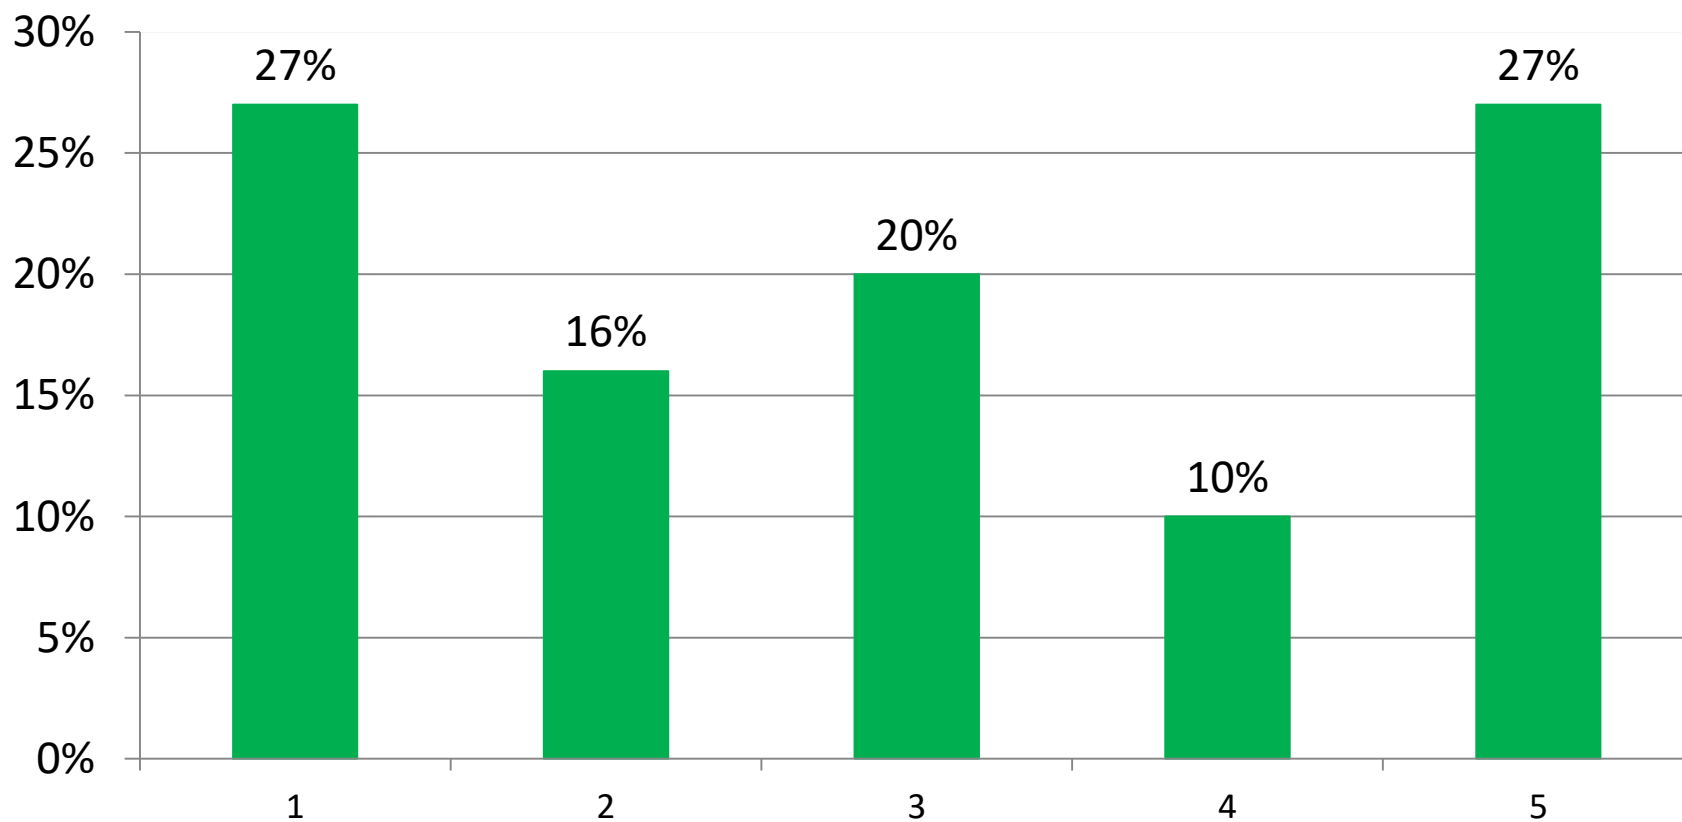

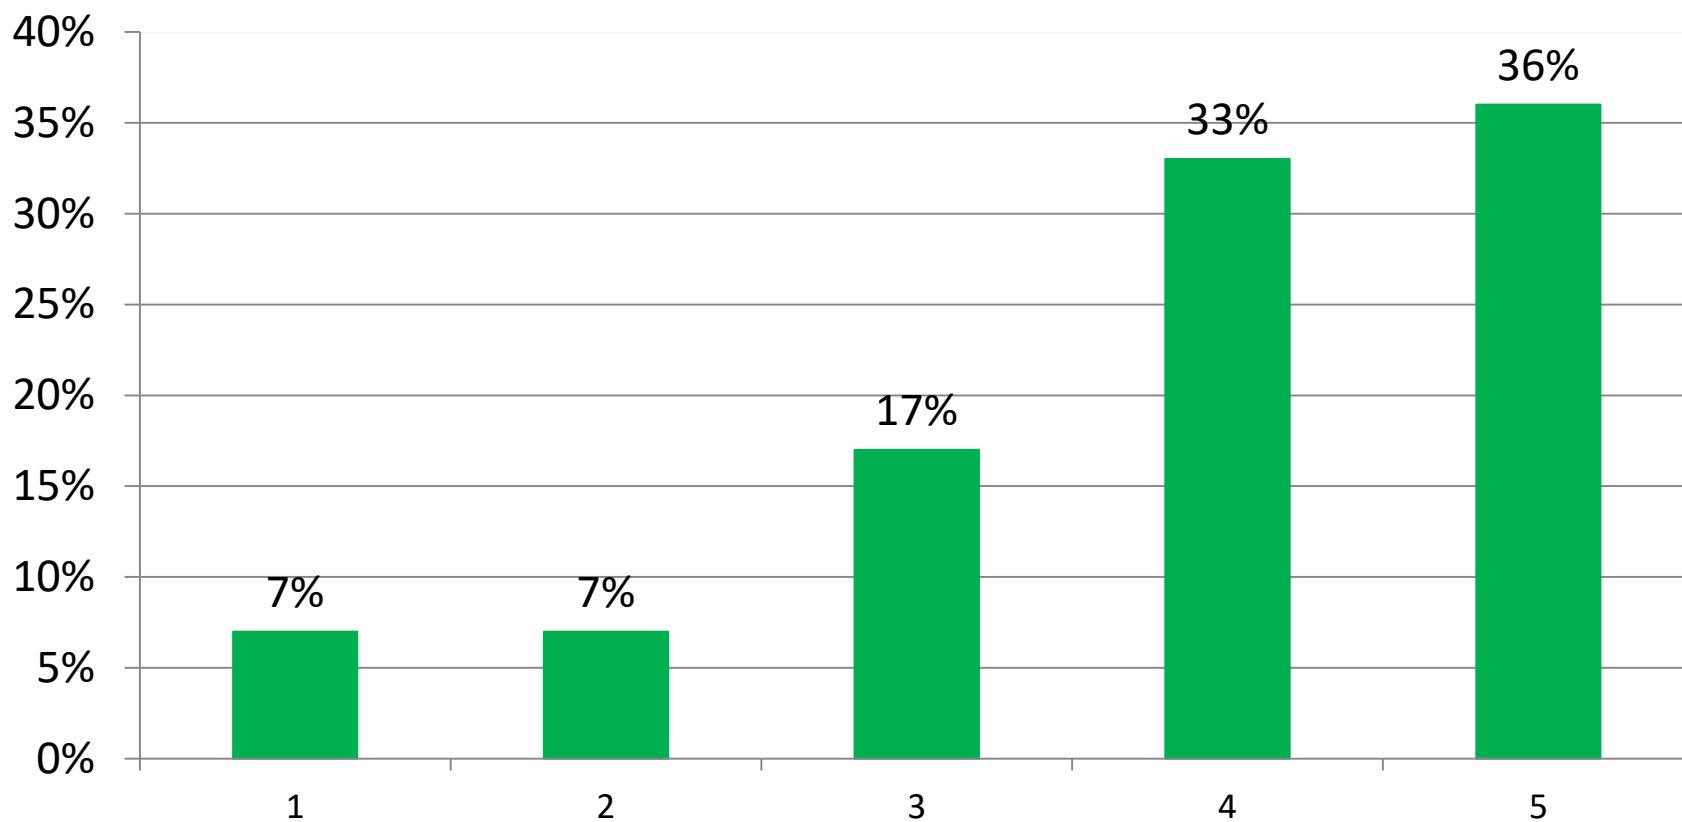

Who do you think should take the lead in establishing PH approach to PEOLC?

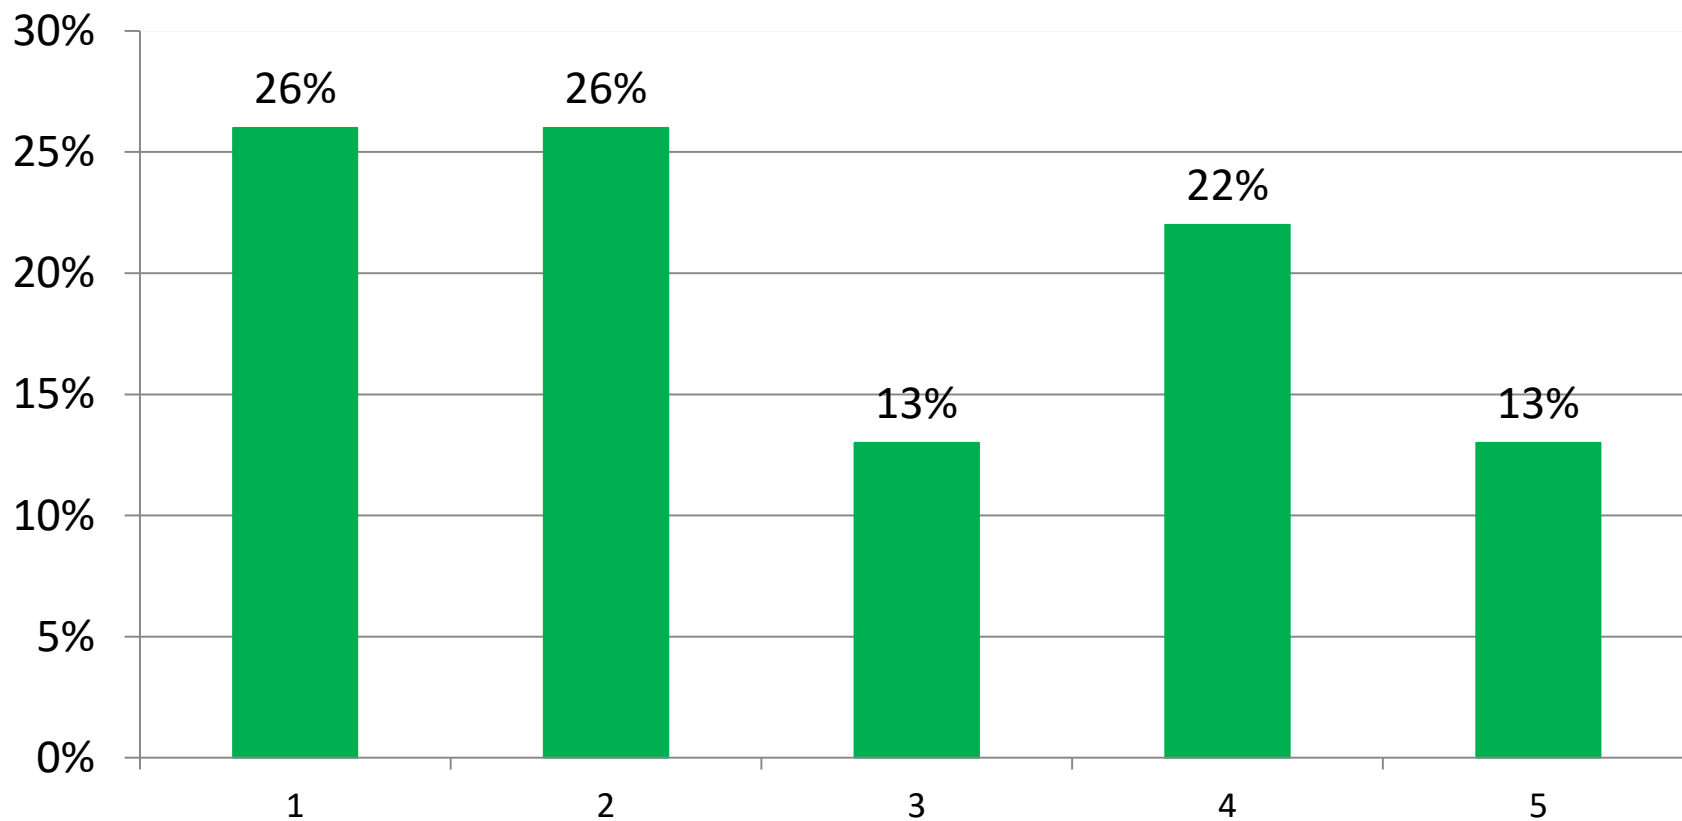

Specialist Palliative Care

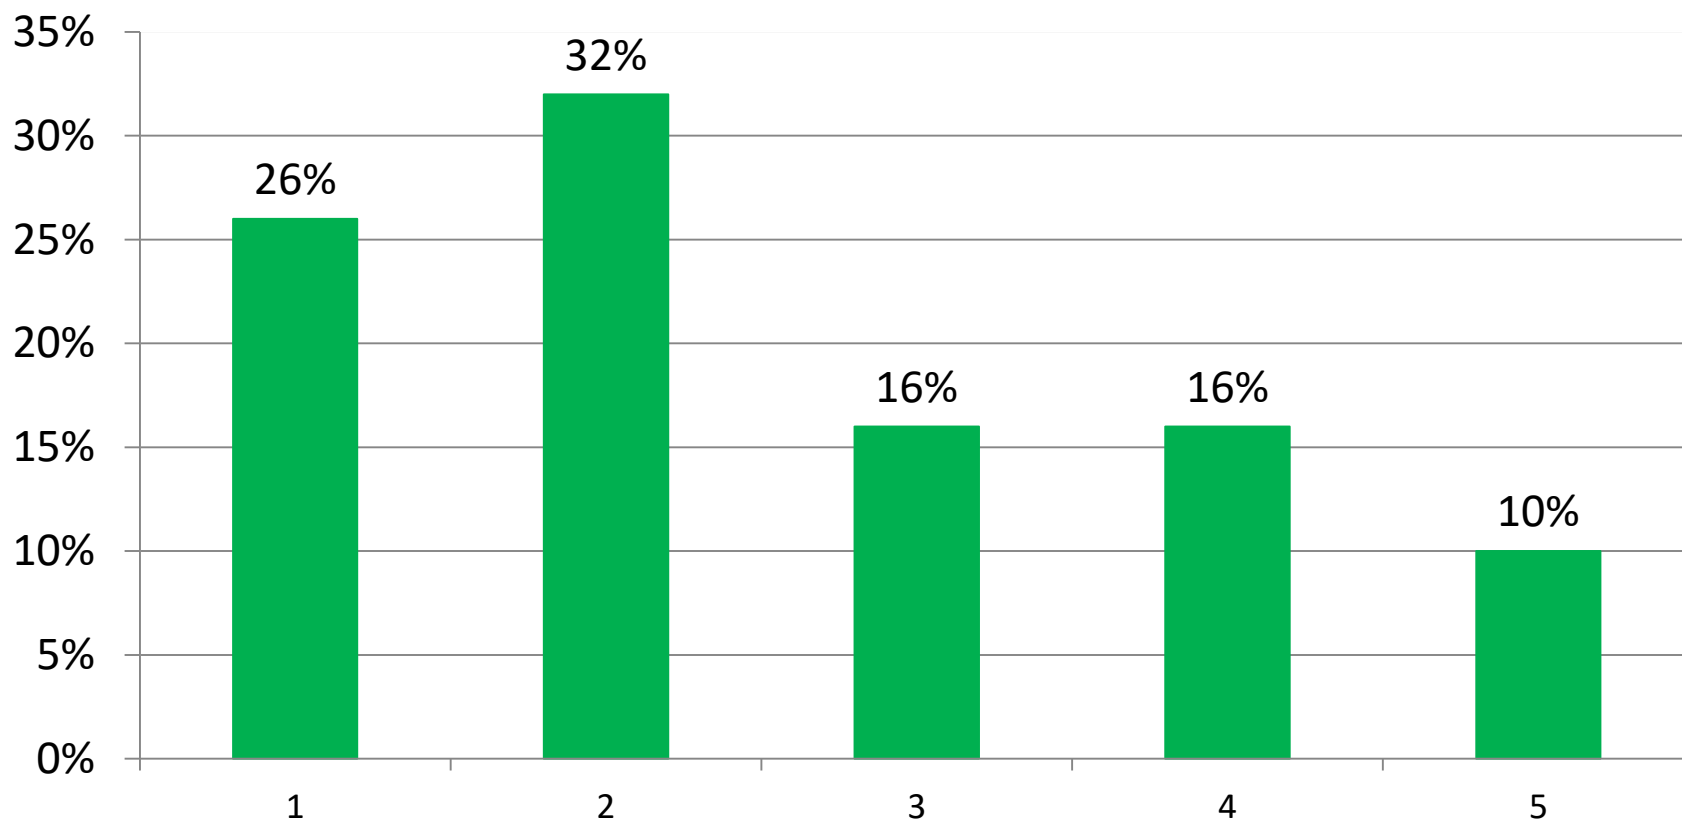

Local councils

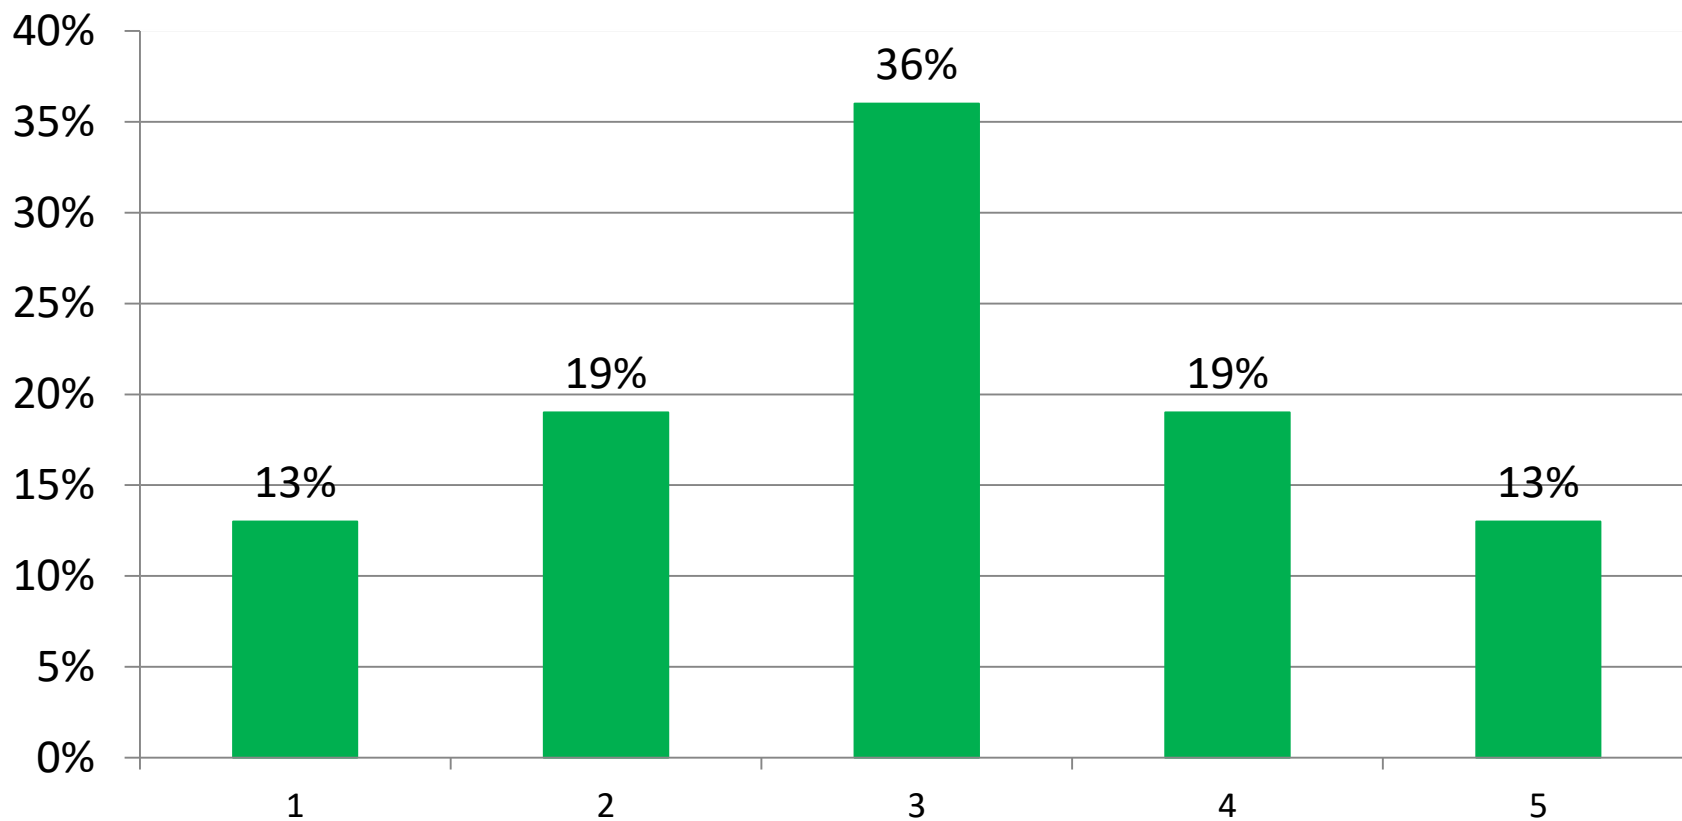

National/regional Govt.

Healthcare policy planners

C&V/NGOs

Thank You